LINCOLN CARMEN WANT JOBS BACK

Striking Street Railway Em ployes Appear at Hearing Before State Railway Board.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, May 22 .- (Special.) -- In an effort to get back the jobs which they left when they went out on strike about six weeks ago, street car conductors and motormen formerly with the Lincoln Traction company appeared before the State Raffway commission today for a hearing in an ef-fort to show that the company with its present employes, who have taken the places of the strikers, is not giv-

the places of the strikers, is not giving the service required.

F. M. Coffey and Attorney Burr are appearing for the strikers and F. M.
Hall and E. J. Heiner are representing the company, while about 100 of the strikers now out of jobs were present at the hearing, which was held in the senate chamber, with Commissioners
Taylor and Wilson sitting.

Welch on Stand.

Mr. Welch, the representative of the national union organization, who had come to Lincoln and organized the men and then called the strike, had come to Lincolr and organized the men and then called the strike, was on the stand most of the time. On the examination by the attorneys for the company, Mr. Welch admitted that all he knew about the grievance which the men had against the company was what the discharged men had told him themselves. He said that he had made no attempt whatever to secure from the officials of the company their side of the controversy, but had ordered the strifte on the representations of the men who had been discharged, who claimed it was because they belonged to the union or were identified with its activities connected with the strike. Whe nasked by Attorney Hall if the men had not been discharged because they had broken the rules of the company, Mr. Welch said that he did not know and had not inquired.
